READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Jan 27

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10 (69C)
"Today is holy to the Lord your God. Do not be sad and do not weep"

Responsorial Psalm: 19:8,9,10,15
The precepts of the Lord are right rejoicing the heart;
the command of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eye.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:12-30
For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Gospel: cf. Luke 4:18
He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

Our Bible Study group
meets every Monday
@ 10am in the Parish
Hall Library.

Holy Redeemer Catholic Church

Our Mission Statement:

The mission of Holy Redeemer Parish is to be a Catholic community centered in Christ as revealed through the Holy Scripture, Sacred Tradition and the Church's teaching authority. The Holy Spirit empowers us to reach out and build God's Kingdom as we worship, educate, serve and evangelize.

Second Sunday
in Ordinary Time

January 20, 2019

How precious is the Chalice that quenches my thirst!

Jesus often gathered for worship with his disciples and others. Following his example, we gather now to grow in God and glorify his name. Welcome!

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Paul reminds the Corinthians that while there are many gifts there is the same Spirit. Each of us has been given a gift—a manifestation of the Spirit—that has been entrusted to us to use for the common good. What gift have you been given? Your gifts may not be ones that are readily acknowledged by society, like being a great actor or teacher or athlete. They may be more "hidden" or unnamed. There is the gift of hospitality—making people feel at ease. The confidant who people can share their hopes and fears with. It may be a knack for cooking or sewing or working with children. Think about the things you are good at—things other people think you do well. These are your gifts. How are you using your gifts for the benefit of others?

*You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the Lord,
a royal diadem held by your God.
~Isaiah 62:3*

May there always be stars to guide you and a smooth road for you to travel.

May you know a thousand blessings each day.

May you be filled with the joy of living and the spirit of giving.

May God give you hope each morning and peace at each evenings rest.

May God walk beside you now and always.

Why We Sing the Hail Mary at end of Mass

We are praying to Mary to help with vocations to the priesthood. It started as a tradition here several years ago.

Second Collection This Week

This week we will have a second collection for Catholic Communications. Those of you who get personalized envelopes and those who do not get the personalized envelopes can just write a check to Holy Redeemer or put cash in the second collection. We then will write one check to the Catholic Communications.

Give Jesus not only your hands to serve, but your heart to love. Pray with absolute trust in God's loving care for you. Let Him use you without consulting you. Let Jesus fill you with joy that you may preach without preaching.

Kingfisher faith

In a video on his publisher's website, Eugene Peterson tells of watching a kingfisher repeatedly dive for fish in a lake. Peterson counted 37 dives before the kingfisher caught its supper! "And he's the king fisher!" Peterson chuckles. From that bird-watching episode, he gleaned a ministry lesson: It may take a long time and many attempts – maybe dozens! – before something works out.

God calls us to live out his love faithfully, even when we don't seem to be accomplishing anything. Maybe we extend 36 invitations to worship, work 36 monthly shifts at a food bank or utter 36 prayers without seeing results. "What's the point?" we wonder. But the kingfisher urges us on: "Maybe number 37 is the charm!"

In the words of St. Paul (and mixing fishing and farming metaphors): "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up" (Galatians 6:9, NIV).

"you too, dear young people, can be joyful witnesses of His love, courageous witnesses of His Gospel, carrying to this world a ray of His light."

~Pope Francis

Changes to HR Kids Program

We will no longer end class in the church. This was always to be part of the classroom instruction, but participation in the church activity continues to decline. We have a very limited time to spend with your children so we will be using that additional time to complete our weekly lessons for each class. We ask that you now pick up your children in the parish hall at 7:30. If special circumstances arise when your child would arrive late or need to leave early, please make arrangements with your child's teacher so we can limit the disruption to class. You can text 541-217-9630 if your child will be late. We value the time we have to assist you in raising your children in the faith. Please help us by arriving on time and allowing your children to participate fully in their class. Thank you. Jim and Ann

Confirmation Schedule

Saturday, May 4 at Our Lady of the Dunes, in Florence. Archbishop Sample will preside. Time: 10:00 a.m.

Thine, not mine

Sheillah Sheldone Charles, an articulate 9-year-old Kenyan featured in a BBC News Africa video, attributes her artistic gifts to God. It's comical to hear her say, "I also teach children," but her rationale is profound: "If you have a talent, don't just say: 'It's mine alone. I should not teach others.' So you should also share your talent out there."

Jesus' parable of the talents in Matthew 25:14-30 teaches us to share our God-given abilities for purposes larger than our own. Sheillah is a fine example: Besides teaching children, she often draws women to highlight their suffering and their importance. Surely the Master exclaims, "Well done, good and faithful servant!" (v. 23, ESV).

PONDER THIS

Receiving Holy Communion (Part One)

Pope Francis in his continuing Catechesis on the Liturgy said: "Every celebration of the Eucharist is a ray of light of the unsetting sun that is the Risen Jesus Christ."

He continued: "This is Mass: entering in this passion, death, resurrection, ascension of Jesus and when we go to Mass, it is as if we go to Calvary, now imagine if we went to Calvary-using our imagination-in that moment, knowing that that man there is Jesus. Would we dare to chitchat, take pictures, make a little scene? No! Because it's Jesus! We would surely be in silence, in tears, and in joy of being saved."

"Mass is experiencing Calvary, it's not a show."

Divine Worship Newsletter, Issue 9-June 2018.

During the week, read these words several times and ask yourself:

Do I prepare myself each time I go to mass to experience and encounter Christ again?

Attention Parents! We have scheduled a mandatory meeting for parents of Sacramental Prep children. It will be Wednesday evening, Jan. 23rd at 6:15 pm in the library. Please have at least one parent or guardian in attendance.

Wednesday Soup Supper

Soup supper begins at 5:30 and ends promptly at 6:00 pm to allow time for children to attend class at 6:15. Please do not drop off children at the hall before 5:30 as we are preparing the meal and classes and will not be able to watch them. If you cannot arrive before 6:00 pm please make other arrangements to feed your children before you bring them. Classes start precisely at 6:15 so please be on time to avoid disrupting the class.. Thank you.
